THE STANDING PARTNERSHIP WELCOMES TWO, PROMOTES ONE

ST. LOUIS (Sept. 2, 2004) – The Standing Partnership, one of the region’s leading independent public relations firms and St. Louis-based Worldcom Public Relations Group partner, recently added two team members and promoted one.

Amber Morris joined The Standing Partnership this month as an account manager.

Formerly communications manager with St. Louis 2004, Morris supplements the firm’s talent with her extensive experience in media relations, community outreach and event planning. She has also coordinated media relations for Planet Hollywood St. Louis, SeaWorld and Disney World in Orlando.

Jenny Brownlow, the firm’s newest client service administrator, brings experience in event planning, market research and Web site development. Before joining The Standing Partnership, Brownlow worked as a marketing coordinator for Cordell & Cordell, P.C., a St. Louis-based law firm.

Christi Dixon was recently promoted to account manager. Before joining the firm two years ago, Dixon worked as a senior account executive for matthews/mark in San Diego.

Now in its 13th year, The Standing Partnership is a generalist public relations firm with expertise in life sciences, healthcare, hospitality and education communications. Its client roster includes Maritz Inc., Monsanto, St. Louis Mills, McCarthy Building Companies, Delaware North Companies and Ranken Technical College.
